

2019 Honorees Dan Trombley '90 & Nicole Westall '92

Trombley and Westall are both graduates from MCLA as both earned Business Administration degrees. Trombley served on the Foundation Board of Directors from 2009 to 2018, and while a director served as treasurer, vice-chair, and chair of the board. Trombley and Westall have been Foundation corporators since 2009. Their commitment to MCLA is evident in their leadership roles at the college where both donate their time and resources to help raise funds for student scholarships and other initiatives. The duo have also been strong supporters of the MCLA Golf Classic through Alton & Westall as sponsors and players. Trombley and Westall have positively impacted the Berkshire County community and the golf classic is honored to partner with them in 2019.

ATHLETICS AT MCLA
The Department of Athletics strives to inspire an atmosphere of excellence in both the athletic and academic settings, provides opportunities to compete at the intercollegiate level, and fosters a setting that promotes leadership in the College's community.

MCLA Athletics 3-2-1 Vision

- All student-athletes reach and maintain a 3.0 GPA
- All teams competing for the top 2 of their conference
- All students and staff working together as #OneTeam

MCLA GOLF CLASSIC

The MCLA Athletics Golf Classic is an annual event and major fundraiser for the Athletics programs at MCLA. Your participation continually impacts the student-athlete experience. Each year, we are humbled by our supportive community that is driven, like us, to see our student athletes succeed. We had a record-breaking year in 2018, which raised $40,000 for Athletics.
